Four of the Five Races Closely Contested Up to the Wire.

New Horses Will Start in Monday's Events at Creek Capital.

JOE LARRY DALLEY.

The largest crowd of the Sapulpa race meet was present for the closing program in the third day racing on the 16-day program yesterday. Four of the events were battled up to the finish wire, only one, the final canter of one mile being easily won.

Friday's rain made the turf hard and fast time was hung up in all racing. Yesterday's card was in keeping with the clausy races of the two previous days. The promoters of the meet have provided fans with fast races. This has been made possible by the many ponies and riders entered. Some of the best horses and jockeys on American tracks are riding in the meet at our neighboring city.

Ethel H. took the lead in the first race of four and one-half furlongs and was never headed, winning with the fast time of 57 3-5. Ed Pinack came fast from the quarter pole and might have won had the race gone an additional furlong.

Myrtle A. also held her lead throughout the second race of about five furlongs. She was away fast but ran a pretty race, taking second and was fast超過ing the winner when he crossed the wire.

The third race of about five furlongs was the closest of the day. Hon. Box took the lead out Oklahoma City over Cassius' mount at the quarter post and finished first by a nose. Medford boy was a close third.

Bob A. showed a great reversal of form in the fourth race of six furlongs, taking the lead shortly after passing the quarter post and winning.

Laird H. took the lead at the drop of the barrier in the final race for the mile stretch and won handily. Laird A. Kirkaldy was second.

Monday's card sees the inaugural attempt of several horses at the Sapulpa track in addition to numerous clausy ponies that have already run there this year.

There are no races today.

SAPULPA TURF NOTES.

Dick Scoville was leading rider yesterday. The veteran jockey brought home two winners in his attempts. Singleton was second with one winner and a second.

This is the first trip in this section of the country for many of the turf men, and all are planning to stage excursions on their off day today. Most of them will come to Tulsa to look the city over. All have heard of Tulsa, and have expressed a desire to see the wonder city of the southwest.

Suspension of McCorkle for crowding Bob A. Thursday and causing Jockey Miller to fall will be lifted to day.

Ida Pinack's time of 57 3-5 was the fastest made over the four and one-half furlongs during the meet.

Old Cossatot gave Starter Donigan trouble at the post in the second race. This bird is one of the most active actors on the turf.

Bob A. final sprint in the fourth race was the spectacular feature of the day.

Jockey Singleton's skillful riding was largely responsible for Bob A. winning in the fifth. Singleton had the outside track, but he dashed to the front when the barrier fell, taking the first inside.

BANTAM BATTLE CALLED OFF

Puryear Makes Impossible Demand to Escape Meeting Jackson.

BY CHARLES J. BRILL

Tulsa has been good luck to K. O. Loughlin. Ever since the South Bethlehem welterweight came out here and tangled twice with Bryan Downey he has been the busiest man of his class in the country. Not only that but he is in great demand everywhere.

Here is a portion of a letter from Al Lippe, reading some of the achievements and prospects of the lad who comes on here to fuss with Johnny Celmar at the Tulsa Sporting club one week from tomorrow night.

Enclosed find clipping of Loughlin fight with Cross last night in Wilkes Barre. It is the same old story: "Easy for Loughlin last night in Milwaukee. Loughlin did everything but knock out Joe Egan and you know both of these are tough customers."

Loughlin gave Marty Cross one of the roughest boxing lessons he ever experienced and he is going better now than he ever did in his life and if he defeats this fellow Celmar on June 3, all he wants in training expenses if Brittton will box him to a decision. The boxer is a real unknown to the press, known only that Brittton does not want to box Loughlin, but from what I have read and heard of Celmar he must be a great fighter as I have received clippings from the south where Ted Lewis ran out on him after finding out how good Celmar was. He must be good, as I have a letter on my desk from a man at Atlanta who wants to bet any part of $5,000 that Celmar can beat Loughlin. The man's name is J. Stern. Do you know anything about him?

He is in great demand and I could keep him busy every night.

Philadelphia wants him with Stearns Leonard or Jack Britton. Milwaukee wants him with Jack Malone. Wilkes Barre wants him with Steve Latzo. Scranton wants him with Tommy Ferguson. Boston wants him with Johnny Tillman. Baltimore wants him with Jack Britton. Buffalo has made him an offer to fight Soldier Britfield. Syracuse is trying to get me to make a date with Joe Welling. Montreal wants him.

He is all fixed up with an excellent attraction for his June 3, for Loughlin and Celmar are sure to put up a great exhibition, but Puryear has run out of his match with Jackson. After accepting the match with Bryan Gowdy, a steady run of the grand stand.

The opening of the season, the Somers meet the Longhorns October 18 at the Dallas fair. Then follows Nebraska at Lincoln, Missouri at Norman and Kansas at Lawrence.

Following those dates the Somers meet the Razorbacks at Fort Smith, the Kansas Aggies here, and the Oklahoma Aggies in the final game Thanksgiving day at Oklahoma City. Here is the complete schedule:

Sept. 27—Central Normal at Oklahoma State Fair, Oklahoma City. Oct. 4—Kingfisher collegians at Norman. Oct. 11—Kendall college at Norman.

He is all fixed up with an excellent attraction for his June 3, for Puryear has been offered by the Pittsburg Pirates to box him to a decision. Recently he had Jackson tangled in a 15-round skit at Fort Worth, and the best Puryear could say was a draw. In spite of the fact that he took advantage of this all-blown-off chance to declare the match off.

At that he would have been a poor prospect of management, but Puryear has met Jackson seven times and never has been able to beat him. Recently he had Jackson tangled in a 15-round skit at Fort Worth, and the best Puryear could say was a draw. In spite of the fact that he took advantage of this all-blown-off chance to declare the match off.

An interesting by-play over the bout was staged in a Third street coffee house the night of the Loadman-Puryear bout. Jackson claimed he had been put out in the fourteenth when Art Magrill, who was seconding Puryear, got him to the floor. Jackson said he didn't wait for the draw until the end of the bout, so he got up and went to the ring. Magrill was still on the floor.
